To Whom it May Concern

I have worked with Option One Financial Partners for ten years in my capacity as Director of various entities. During this time I have been impressed with the level of service and professionalism I have received from all the staff and Rod Cumming in particular.

With an attention to detail and a willingness to 'go that extra mile', Option One has long been a valuable business partner. Rod always manages to find a solution and does so with integrity, patience and perseverance. His charming and friendly manner makes him a pleasure to deal with and I look forward to our continued business association.
